Moved with pity,
he stretched out his hand,

touched him, and said to him,
"I do will it. Be made clean."
The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean.

THE CATHOLIC PARISHES OF MILLBURY
SAINT BRIGID † OUR LADY OF THE ASSUMPTION

An Historical Look Back:

From a French history of the Paroisse de l'Assomption 75th Anniversary 1959

From 1833 to 1850, Millbury Catholics, the English-speaking people as well as the French-speaking people, formed a mission church served by a priest from the newly formed parish of St. John's in Worcester.

The Sunday Mass was celebrated sometimes in the Town Hall, sometimes in the Arcade Block, and sometimes even in the home of a parishioner. If a priest could not be found for Millbury, then people would go to Worcester.

On June 13, 1850, the pastor from St. John's, Fr. Gibson met with all the Catholics from Millbury; they resolved to build a church. At Christmas of that same year, the first Mass was celebrated.

On October 2, 1851, His Excellency Bishop John Fitzpatrick, third Bishop of Boston, blessed the new building and gave it the name St. Brigide, the second patron of Ireland.

Fr. Zepherin Levesque was its first priest even though he did not live in the parish. He was a mission priest and continued to minister to the surrounding villages where he sometimes resided.

It is for this reason that St. Brigide lost its title of independent parish and was annexed in 1853 to St. Mary in Uxbridge.

Later, Millbury and Grafton became mission churches to St. Ann's in Worcester.

It wasn't until June of 1869 that St. Brigide again became an autonomous parish when Fr. Michael Doherty became the resident pastor.

For 19 years, the French-speaking parishioners and the English-speaking parishioners went to the same church in perfect harmony.

However, the French-Canadian population continued to increase. On November 3, 1878, the Canadians assembled in a hall of a certain C. Leblanc. They discussed the advantages of having a Canadian priest and a national church of the French language. They also decided to survey the Canadians. A second assembly on Nov. 10 revealed very interesting statistics: "236 Canadian families, 1300 souls (on a population of 2,800) and 900 communicants, two thirds do not understand English.

They resolved to present a petition to His Excellency, Bishop Patrick Thomas O'Reilly, for the purpose of a "separation". This letter bore the names of the following signers: Charles Thibeault, President; Francois X. Charon; Pierre Dubois.

Sorrowfully, His Excellency the Bishop, for major reasons could not grant the request. In fact, French priests or those who could speak French were extremely rare; many Canadian centers had already raised this same question as Millbury. They had to then, until 1884, live in hope until this painful situation was settled …

Important Parish Meetings

In our Diocese of Worcester, there is an Office of Pastoral Planning which is charged with structuring the parishes, missions, and agencies of the diocese to best meet the needs of the mission of the Church to serve the People of God.
Over the past couple of years, your pastor, your deacon, and members of your Finance Committee have been meeting with diocesan officials, including Bishop McManus, about the situation of our two parishes in Millbury and whether it might be spiritually and financially beneficial for the two to become one parish. There would be no closings, no big name changes, no difference in parish operations; the two parishes would simply become one parish with one set of books, one budget.
As you read these explanatory articles from the pastor in the bulletin over this month of February, we invite you to think it over and, hopefully, come to see the wisdom and benefit of such a change.
Members of our Diocesan Pastoral Planning Commission will be with us in Millbury on two occasions for open meetings to facilitate discussion, answer questions, and listen to any concerns that might be raised. Those meetings will be:

Thursday, February 29th at 6:30 PM in Assumption Hall
Saturday, March 2nd at 2:00 PM in St. Brigid Hall

Please mark your calendar and plan to attend one of these meetings.

This Weekend!

This weekend, before and after all Masses, students from our 7th & 8th Grade Faith Formation program will be at the doors of the churches collecting monetary donations as part of the nationwide SOUPER BOWL of CARING mission to help fight food insecurities in families and children. All money raised will be donated to Pernet Family Services on Millbury St. in Worcester.

LENTEN FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Fasting	Abstinence
Ash Wednesday Good Friday	Every Friday during Lent
Ages 18-59	Ages 14+

How do we fast?

When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

Am I excused from fasting and abstinence?

Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women.

For more information on fasting and abstinence, visit usccb.org.

News & Updates

"I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation" (Ps.32:7)

As we prepare to enter the desert this Lenten season, there is no greater method of advancing in sanctity than to frequently and devoutly meditate on the Passion of Jesus Christ.

Beginning next Sunday we will start to pray the Sorrowful Mysteries, one mystery a week so you are able to meditate on it each each day of that week. That's one decade a week to pray with your family, or the complete 5 mysteries if you so desire. But most of all to meditate on the mystery of the week as we follow Jesus on the way to Golgotha.

This will all lead up to the presentation of the Sorrowful Mysteries through the Eyes of Mary on Tuesday of Holy Week 6 P.M. at St. Brigid Parish and on Good Friday at 7 P.M. at St. Mark's. We hope you will join us in prayer.

May this Lenten season be your most prayerful of all, in the Garden of Gethsemane, kneeling beside Jesus.

May the Peace of the Lord be with you and your family, now and forever,
The Knights of Bishop Flanagan Council 12710

Ash Wednesday 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When a young man is ordained, you, his parishioners, become his family and he becomes your spiritual father. Through the joys of baptisms, First Holy Communions, Confirmations and weddings, the priest is at the heart of parish and family life. When sickness, strain, tragedy and death strike, your spiritual father is there to steady you, reassure you and give you hope by pointing to Jesus Christ and to the mystery of his suffering, death, and resurrection.

As family members, we grow with our priests. In time, we or they move on, but their love, support and lessons remain with us. Like every family there comes a time when those who have nourished, nurtured, and supported us grow old and need our support.

On Ash Wednesday we will hold a collection at all Masses for the support of our 49 priests who have retired in good standing. Our expenses for retired priests include a monthly stipend, medical insurance, nursing care and, for some, assisted living and nursing home costs. Last year our total cost for priest retirement was $2,390,298.

These retired priests have served with dedication, fidelity, and love. Many continue to serve. Four remain in parishes full time as senior priests. Others have stepped in to administer parishes and say daily Mass. Still others regularly fill in on weekends, cover vacations and serve in prison ministry and on Diocesan Boards and the Tribunal.

Our 49 retired priests and senior priests have served in 77 of our 89 parishes (or their predecessors). They are Bishop Emeritus Daniel P. Reilly, Msgrs. Richard E. Collette, Anthony S. Czarnecki, John E. Doran, Michael G. Foley, and Francis D. Kelly; Frs. Ernest P. Allega, Roger R. Boucher, Paul F. Campbell, James F. Carmody, George A. Charland, William N. Cormier, Andre E. Dargis, Ralph A. DiOrio, David E. Doiron, Charles J. Dumphy, George A. Dunkley, John A. Dwyer, Thomas F. Egan, Lawrence J. Esposito, John J. Foley, David B. Galonek, Raymond M. Goodwin, Bernard J. On their behalf, I thank you for your prayers and support of them in their retirement years.

With every prayerful best wish I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. McManus
